

Foodbank Manager

20 hrs per week

Could you be the person that ensures Ely Foodbank serves hundreds of people in food crisis each month?

Ely Foodbank seeks a dedicated manager for our operations in the Ely City area and to support our other distribution centres across the region. This oversight to our weekly distribution will ensure clients consistently receive a positive experience. The role will include managing volunteers, liaising with partner organisations, organising special collection opportunities, dealing with general enquiries and occasional out of hours emergency client support.

Reporting to the Project Director, we seek a reliable, enthusiastic person, with good planning skills, adaptable and able to work effectively in a team, comprising of operational staff and volunteers.

The Foodbank Manager is responsible for coordinating volunteers across all Ely distribution sessions, although it is not essential to attend every session in person. The actual number of hours per week is flexible and can be negotiated, and the position can be considered on either a voluntary or a paid basis.

A full role description and further information about the role are available on request. To apply or express interest, please contact the Project Director, Cathy Wright: cathy@elyfoodbank.org.uk or ask for a call by ringing 01353 468626

Closing date for applications 7th January 2022

Ely Foodbank is a charity founded on Christian principles. Not every member of the team is a Christian, but we all subscribe to the same values and hope that new team members will too.
