

Volunteering with Ely Foodbank

The Need

Every day, people in the UK go hungry for reasons ranging from redundancy to receiving an unexpected bill on a low income. Rising costs of food and fuel combined with static income, high unemployment and changes to benefits are causing more and more people to come to Foodbanks for help. In 2016-2017 Foodbanks fed over one million people nationwide,

Who We Are

Ely Foodbank is a local charity established in 2012. We are part of a national network of around 425 Foodbanks partnering with the Trussell Trust, who established the first Foodbank in the UK in 2000.

Ely Foodbank operates by supporting people experiencing crisis, through provision of emergency food and support. We provide enough food for a minimum of three days, for individuals and families, for those with homes and for those without. We operate within a 15 mile radius of Ely.

What We Do

We have Distribution Centres in Chatteris, Cottenham, Ely, Haddenham, March, Soham and Sutton. We operate two food warehouses in Ely and March where food is received, sorted and stored ready for distribution. We arrange collections of food from shoppers at local supermarkets. We encourage individuals and organisations to collect and donate extra food on a regular basis.

We work with a wide range of local agencies in the area that are often the first point of contact for clients in need, such as CAB, Cambridge Housing and Addaction.

Volunteering with Ely Foodbank

The majority of our work is undertaken by volunteers. Your gift of time can help stop local people going hungry. We could not do it without the time given by our dedicated volunteers. There are four main ways to help us through volunteering:

- Sorting donated food ready for distribution
- Helping to meet clients and give out food at our Foodbank centre
- Regular core administration tasks, transporting food between locations, and fulfilling various errands in and around the city
- Helping out at Foodbank supermarket collection days

In addition, there are occasional openings for volunteers to assist with a wide range of other activities such as creating newsletter and marketing materials, fund-raising and a range of office administration tasks (some of which can be done from home).

To apply to join us as a volunteer, please fill in this application form and return to the address at the end of this leaflet, after which we will make contact with you to attend one of our Induction Sessions, where you will hear more of the work of Ely Foodbank, answer any questions and explore with you how best to make use of your abilities and availability.

Communications in the first instance will be dealt with by our Admin Support at PA Calls Ltd.

Completed application forms can be posted or emailed using these addresses:-

Core Values Statement

Ely Foodbank is operated by local people who are motivated by a set of core values and concern for people in need, together with a humility that acknowledges they are just one node in a network of factors, organisations, and in a society which holds a diverse range of beliefs. Ely Foodbank Partnership is supported by the Churches in Ely.

If you choose to join us as a member of our volunteer team, we ask that you strive to abide by these values to the best of your ability, in all your dealings with the organisation, its staff and volunteers and our clients.

Our core values are:

We strive to operate with honesty, love, respect, integrity, openness and generosity at every level.

We strive to attract volunteers and staff with character, values, commitment and ability.

We recognise that partnership with a wide range of diverse organisations is essential.

We see and seek equality, promoting a two-way dynamic especially between the organisation (with its staff/volunteers) and its clients.

We recognise the vulnerability of people who present themselves as clients.

We are attentive to client's needs in a holistic way, recognising that we all have inter-linked needs in mind, body and spirit.

We will not act with any form of ulterior motive.

We will not undermine a person's right to privacy, confidentiality, or desire to maintain their own beliefs.

We will not imply any pre-condition or requirement with respect to receipt of a food parcel.
